

PALERMO

Palermo Amarino by Bardinet a premium non-alcoholic aperitif with all the warmth of Italy

From Bardinet La Martiniquaise of Bordeaux, France's second largest spirit manufacturer, comes Palermo Amarino, a non-alcoholic aperitif.

Palermo Amarino is a revitalising non-alcoholic aperitif with surprising flavours of natural aromatic herbs and botanicals along with a subtle flavour of vermouth.

This beautiful non-alcoholic aperitif is widely used in France and is becoming a popular ingredient in modern cocktails. The rich spicy undertones and unmistakable rose presentation tickle your taste buds every time. A dash of Palermo Amarino over crushed ice with lemon or orange zest provides an intense, stylish and balanced aperitif or mix it with juice or sparkling mixers, for that perfect summer drink.

For more than 30 years, Palermo combines tradition with the same know how of their delicious recipes of aperitifs of style, without alcohol, to share the good moments in life.

Palermo Amarino non-alcoholic aperitif contains 46 kilo calories per 100 ml serve. It is sold in 1 litre screw top bottles in cases of 6 bottles.

